THE TOUCH DOES IT

Benson's Plasters are like your other friends—they hate to see you in pain or in weakness and are dog-tired hearing you complain about it. They want to cure you and send you along to your business—whole and happy. They can do it and will do it. Try them on. What for? Why for any cough or cold you may be troubled with, or any bothering pain or ache, or worry with kidneys or liver. Possibly some old clutch of muscular rheumatism renders an arm or a leg worth only half price just now. For anything that makes the machine work slow and stiff, with pain maybe in the motion of it, clap a Benson's Porous Plaster squarely on the bad spot. They are the get-out-to-morrow plasters—not the sort that go to sleep on your skin like a cat on a cushion. There is comfort and speedy relief in the touch of them. No other external remedy, no matter how made or how called, is worthy to live in the same street with Benson's Plasters. Pains and ailments melt away under them as a sheet of ice does under the Spring sun. You cannot foretell the weather but you can always foretell the effect of Benson's Plasters; it is as sure as the effect of a hot breakfast in a hungry man's stomach. But look out for substitutes. Get the genuine. All druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c. each.

THE GULLS.

Soft is the sky in the mist kirtled east;
Light is abroad on the sea.
All of the heaven with silver is fleeced,
Holding the sunrise in fee.
Lo, with a flash and uplifting of wings
Down where the long ripples break,
Cometh a bevy of glad hearted things;
'Tis morn, for the gulls are awake.

Slumberous calm on the ocean and shore
Comes with the turn of the tide;
Never a strong sweeping pinion may soar
Where the tame fishing boats ride!
Far and beyond in blue deserts of sea,
Where the wild winds are at play,
There may the spirits of sea birds be free;
'Tis noon, for the gulls are away.

Over the rim of the sunset is blown
Sea dusk of purple and gold;
Speed now the wanderers back to their own,
Wings the most tireless must fold.
Homeward together at twilight they flock,
Sated with joys of the deep,
Drowsily huddled on headland and rock;
'Tis night, for the gulls are asleep.
—L. M. Montgomery in Criterion.

SEQUOIA GIGANTEA.

California's Giant Redwoods the Greatest of Living Things.

The big tree (Sequoia gigantea) is nature's forest masterpiece and, as far as I know, the greatest of living things. It belongs to an ancient stock, as its remains in an old rock show, and has a strange air of other days about it—a thoroughbred look inherited from the long ago, the auld lang syne of trees.

The Pacific coast in general is the paradise of conifers. Here nearly all of them are giants and display a beauty and magnificence unknown elsewhere. The climate is mild, the ground never freezes and moisture and sunshine abound all the year. Nevertheless, it is not easy to account for the collosal size of the sequoias. The largest are about 300 feet high and thirty in diameter. Who of all the dwellers of the plains and prairies and fertile home forests of round headed oak and maple, hickory and elm ever dreamed that earth could bear such growths—trees that the familiar pines and firs seem to know nothing about—lonely, silent, serene, with a physiognomy almost godlike, and so old thousands of them still living had counted their years by tens of centuries when Columbus set sail from Spain and were in the vigor of youth or middle age when the star led the Chaldean sages to the infant Saviour's cradle?

As far as man is concerned they are the same yesterday, today and forever—emblems of permanence. —John Muir in Atlantic.

Printers' Blunders.

Printers are responsible for many charming mistakes and some of them admit the fact. Witness the volume of sermons recently published which contained the startling admission: "Printers have persecuted me without a cause." Of course it should have been "princes," but no doubt the compositor was satisfied, but I don't complain.

Parsons are the especial butts for the jokes of the merry typesetter. A Methodist minister is reported to have said, "Methodism is elastic, expensive and progressive." Was it sheer wickedness that made the printer substitute e for a, altering "expansive" to the more shocking term? The bishop of St. Asaph, addressing his old parishioners some time ago at Carmarthen, referred to his "younger and rasher days." He was naturally reported as having spoken of his "younger and masher days." No wonder John McNeil said that when he took up the daily papers and read his reported utterances he always sighed, "Verily, we die daily!"—Chambers' Journal.

Early Electric Phenomena.

An Englishman put on a pair of woolen stockings over his silk ones on a cold winter day. At night he pulled the stockings off without separating them and was astonished by the crackling noise and even the sparks of electricity which followed. When he drew the silk stockings out of the woolen ones, the electrical attraction was so manifest that the stockings would incline toward one another when held more than a foot apart. It happened that the silk stockings were black and the woolen ones of light color, but when he tried the experiment with both stockings of the same color there was no electrical appearance. This stocking experiment soon got to be the fashionable "fad" in England. Leyden jars were charged by the stocking process, and great fun was had by giving light shocks to persons and domestic animals.—Exchange.

Too Busy to Spell Correctly.

It used to be said that no gentleman could be so ill bred as to spell correctly. Like Napoleon, statesmen of the eighteenth century were too busy in state affairs to mind orthography. The old Duchess of Gordon's rule in these matters was a convenient one:

"You know, my dear, when I don't know how to spell a word I always draw a line under it, and if it is spelled wrong it passes for a very good joke, and if it is spelled right it doesn't matter."—Waverly Magazine.

SURGERY BY STEAM.

An Operation That Came Near Being Too Successful.

A surgical operation performed under necessity by an amateur in the Maine woods was quite as remarkable as the operations of city specialists, who are provided with almost perfect implements and elaborate conveniences. The accident was a dislocated shoulder, and the extempore surgeon's outfit was of a kind hitherto unused in professional practice. It was described by a writer in the Lewiston Journal:

Old Sabattus was not an Indian, as the nickname implies, but a Yankee guide. One autumn he was left on a steamboat at one of the upper landings on Moosehead lake while the engineer went ashore with some guests.

A man named Meservey came aboard, and in fooling around the boat managed to fall into the fire pit and put his shoulder out of joint. Here was a dilemma. The other members of the party would not be back for half an hour and the injured man was in great pain.

The guide was a man of expedients. He got a rope and tied his patient securely to a post. Then he tied another rope around the man's wrist and fastened the loose end of it to a pulley of the engine. He managed somehow to turn on steam and the pulley began to wind up the rope.

It drew the arm out tight in beautiful shape and presently the joint snapped back into its socket. Then Sabattus jumped around to shut off steam, while the pulley kept on winding.

"How does it go? I don't know where it is!" gasped the guide excitedly. "I can't stop the blamed thing!" And the pulley meanwhile was slowly but surely pulling the patient to pieces. His eyes were sticking out of their sockets, and he screamed and gasped for breath.

Sabattus danced around like a wild man, not knowing what to do, when he happened to spy a hatchet lying near, and, jumping for that, he cut the rope.

Some years afterward a lot of summer company arrived at Greenville. Sabattus was there too, and presently a distinguished looking man, one of the newcomers, went up to him and said, with a meaning smile, "Aren't you the man who practices surgery by steam?"

Sabattus admitted that he was "that same feller."

Reasons For Delay.

"Only one thing I ask, darling," she whispered.

"What is it, my own sweet?" he replied.

"Let our engagement be a secret for another month."

"Why? No, let me tell the world you are mine. Let me show them the prize I have won."

"Not for a month, dearest—one, one little month, I beg of you."

"Why do you want to keep it a secret? I fear you do not love me."

"I adore you. You are the only man I ever loved. But you are poor—and—and"—

"But I will be rich. With you, love, I will work for wealth."

"Yes, darling, yes. But Harry is wealthy, George is well off, William has plenty and several of my admirers have money."

"Still thinking of your admirers?"

"Yes, dear, for my birthday is near, and they have all given me handsome presents on previous occasions."

"Thoughtful angel, forgive me. Let us wait a month."—London Answers.

The Stars We See.

We often hear the expression the "countless stars," and it is a perfectly appropriate expression when we take the telescopic stars into account—that is, those that are visible only through a telescope. Most readers know that the stars have been divided into classes, according to their magnitude, the word "magnitude" not being applied to the actual size of the stars, of which we know comparatively little, but to their brightness. Only stars of the first six magnitudes are visible to the naked eye of average keenness. While there are but 20 stars of the first magnitude and about 65 of the second, there are 3,200 of the sixth and altogether about 6,000 of all six magnitudes, therefore all visible to the unaided eye.

Wash Your New Socks.

A pair of new socks, fresh from the store, feel very comfortable to the feet, but the man who wears them before they are washed makes a mistake. Hosiery should always be washed before being worn, as the washing shrinks the threads and makes the socks wear as long again, besides preventing the feet from being injured by the coloring. When put on before washing, they stretch out of shape and can never be restored to the original form.

THE DAYLIGHT IS GONE.

Come, dearest, the daylight is gone,
The stars are unveiling to thee;
Come, wander, my loved one, alone,
If alone thou wouldst call it with me.

Let us go where the wild flowers bloom
Amid the soft dews of the night,
Where the orange dispels its perfume
And the rose speaks of love and delight.

Remember, love, I must soon leave thee
To wander mid strangers alone;
At eve thy sweet smile will not greet me
Nor thy gentle voice at morn.

But, oh, 'twill be sweet to remember
That though I am far, far from thee,
'Tis the hand of fate only can sever
Thy lasting affection for me.

THREE TALL STORIES.

Incidents With Endings Contrary to All Human Experience.

"I have got just $3,000 to spend in building a house," said the confiding man who had dropped into the office of the architect, "and I want you to draw me the plans for a good two story frame dwelling that can be built for that sum, counting materials, work and all."

So the architect drew the plans and specifications for a $3,000 house, and the man subsequently built it for that sum, with $6.37 to spare, which he spent in giving the architect a dinner at a down town restaurant.

A woman awoke in the middle of the night with a shriek.

"John," she cried to her husband, "my sister Jane is dead! I know it! I have just had a frightfully vivid dream about her."

But her husband quieted her, and presently she went to sleep, her cheeks still wet with tears.

Then he noted the exact hour at which his wife had had her dream.

The next day, as can be verified by anybody who is skeptical, no messenger of any sort came with a telegram containing the sad news of the death of her sister Jane, who, at last accounts, was still alive and well.

"Curses on my folly!" suddenly exclaimed Mr. Jrobinson when about half way down town.

It was a beautiful day, and there was not a cloud in the sky.

He had donned his high silk hat and forgotten his umbrella.

Still—mark the statement—it did not rain.

In fact, it didn't rain for nearly two weeks after that.—Chicago Tribune.

It's All In the Breathing.

The splendid results of high altitude in the treatment of tuberculosis have not been due to any curative constituent of the atmosphere or any peculiarity of temperature, but entirely to decreased barometric pressure upon the external surface, compelling a greater expansion of the chest, opening up a larger surface for the interchange of gases and consequently a greater oxygenation of the blood. It is self evident, then, that the forced distention of the lungs and bronchi in those who live in high altitudes alone confers immunity against the disease.

The exercises available to produce better respiration are very numerous and varied, but the underlying principle is simply to bring into more vigorous play the muscles which expand the thorax and at the same time excite deep, full and free breathing—to bring the vital force of the lung to its maximum.—Parker Murphy in Albany Medical Annals.

A WOMAN'S PRAYER.

It is notable that in the despondency caused by womanly diseases, there seems to many a suffering woman no way of escape from pain except at the price of life itself. It would be sad to record such a story of struggle and suffering except for the fact that in such dire distress many a woman has found a way back to health and happiness by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This great remedy for womanly ills has well been called "A godsend to weak and sick women." It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"Your medicine almost raised me from the dead," writes Mrs. Edwin H. Gardner, of Egypt, Plymouth Co., Mass., Box 14. "My urine was like brick dust, and I had pain all over me and such a dragging feeling it seemed I could not do my house work. I had to sit down to wash the dishes, even. In the year 1897 I was so sick I did not care to live and prayed many times that God would take me. One day I found a little book. I read it and wrote to Dr. Pierce, and in a few days received an answer. I decided to try his medicine, and to-day I am a well woman. I have no backache, no headache, no pain at all. I used always to have headaches previously to the monthly period and such pain that I would roll on the floor in agony. I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and three of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and three vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and was completely cured."

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription." There is nothing just as good.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser—sent free on receipt of stamps to cover expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers; or 31 stamps for the cloth bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had overspoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle."

Gentlemen: I write this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene, for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic Asthma for the past 12 years. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After taking one bottle her Asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. THE Santa Rosa Republican hints that General Miles has deserted the Republican party and is flirting with the Democrats to secure their endorsement for the Presidency in 1904. Our rash contemporary then remarks: "If so, his departure from the men who made him about all he is will not cause them much worry." For shame! As a Republican, Theodore Roosevelt is good enough for us in 1904, but as an American we can't stand for such narrow-minded, bigoted assertions. General Miles is an old solider, a veteran of many wars and the General of the Army, and no one has made him. He is not even a West Pointer, and all the honors that he has won has been due to his military genius and his qualities as a fighter. This belittling of our great men should cease. In the case of the late President McKinley it led to his assassination without a doubt. Americans should never cease to forget that they are Americans. Can it be possible that the Republican is turning yellow?

IT is impossible in this progressive age of ours for anything to preserve its antique character, no matter how sacred. The picturesque East with all its associations, with all its historic and poetical significance, is to fall prey to trusts and trolley cars. The patient, sleepy-eyed ass, which for ages has carried the eager traveler on his way and lent a pleasing personnel to the country about the Red Sea, must now go to the boneyard. He is too slow for 1902 and there is not enough money to be made out of him. Thrifty Americans have organized a corporation known as the Cleveland Construction Company and they will build a trolley line from Mecca to Sinai. The promoters have an eye to business as the annual Mohammedan pilgrimage to Mecca is a great event and hundreds of pilgrims wend their way to the sacred city every year.

SMITH'S Cash Store of San Francisco has commenced suit in the United States District Court against the First National Bank to recover $100,000 damages. The suit is the outcome of the failure of the store in January, 1900, which plaintiff alleges was brought about by the defendant bank refusing to honor its checks to the amount of $3,750. This action on the bank's part, it is claimed, injured the store's commercial standing to such an extent that it was forced to make an assignment, although its business amounted to over half a million dollars per annum. Eventually Smith succeeded in paying off his indebtedness and re-establishing the credit of his store, but the suspension, it is alleged, cost him $100,000. The suit is a novel one on this coast and will be the first of its kind ever tried in California, although several have been fought to a successful issue by lawyers in the east.

EVERY voter in the county must re-register for the coming municipal and State and county elections. The new registration has already been inaugurated by County Clerk Fulton, but will cease within forty days before an election. As a municipal election will be held here in April it behooves our citizens to see to it that their names are entered on the new Great Register between now and the latter part of February, and thus be on the safe side of the proposition.

THE cold snap of the past month still continues and appears to be general all over the State. Even the much-boasted "warm belt" of Southern California is being dominated by the Frost King, who appears to be "playing a freeze out game" all along the line from Siskiyou to San Diego.

IF you can accommodate summer boarders, it matters not how many or how few, send the number to R. X. Ryan, General Passenger Agent of the California Northwestern Railway, San Francisco. It will cost you nothing and will secure you the boarders. See announcement on third page.

THE ELITE ARE NOT ELITE AT ALL.

THOSE within the pale of society are particularly wan just now over the startling announcement that ninety per cent. of the elite are not elite at all. Rev. Dr. Charles William De Lynn Nichols has cut them out. The gentleman is a self-crowned social dictator and claims to be the rightful successor of the late Ward McAllister. San Francisco says the man is either "a fool or madman," for he has discovered just six social lions and lionesses in our metropolis.

The Greenways and Salisburys have been laboring under an awful delusion all these years in posing as the leaders of the ultra fashionable. Their names do not appear in Mr. Nichols' directory, and so he would have them go way back. Mme. Barvard and Sally Sharpe, who have been doing society for two of the leading newspapers, have been making all kinds of blunders according to his royal nibs. They are horribly promiscuous with the quill and should be employed only when the Mackays, Crockers and Tevises are doing things.

Most every one will, upon first thought, say with society that Nichols must be a fool or a madman, and yet upon second thought there may be method in his madness. He at least teaches a lesson. Those who have long believed themselves at the very highest rung of the social ladder, who for many seasons have looked with disdain on their fellows beneath them, now have the opportunity of looking upward and seeing some of their own set pass them in the race for social honors. A social heaven has been created and from this wondrous sphere the bright particular stars discovered by Rev. Dr. Nichols look down upon those they left behind.

Society may now open its eyes to the fact that there is nothing good but it might be better.

IN commenting on the real estate commission case of Horn vs. Smith, which was appealed from Justice King's court, Petaluma, to the Superior Court, we stated that Judge Dougherty reversed the lower court. This was incorrect, as Mr. King decided that Mr. Horn was entitled to his commission. In ordering a new trial Judge Dougherty concurred with Justice King and in reality reversed a ruling made when the case was brought before him for trial on appeal. This explanation is made out of a spirit of justness to Mr. King.

Getting Thin

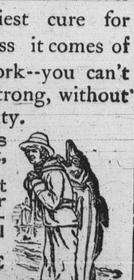
is all right, if you are too fat; and all wrong, if too thin already.

Fat, enough for your habit, is healthy; a little more, or less, is no great harm. Too fat, consult a doctor; too thin, persistently thin, no matter what cause, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

There are many causes of getting too thin; they all come under these two heads: over-work and under-digestion.

Stop over-work, if you can; but, whether you can or not, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, to balance yourself with your work. You can't live on it—true—but, by it, you can. There's a limit, however; you'll pay for it

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the readiest cure for "can't eat," unless it comes of your doing no work—you can't long be well and strong, without some sort of activity.



The genuine has this picture on it, take no other.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

Weekly Crop Bulletin.

United States Department of Agriculture. Climate and Crop Bulletin of the Weather Bureau, California Section, Coast and Bay Division, for the week ending Monday, January 13, 1902:

The weather has continued cold, cloudy and foggy during most of the week, with heavy fogs and no rain. Dry, northerly winds have absorbed much of the moisture in the soil. In the central and northern sections grain is in good condition but making slow growth, and green feed is still plentiful; plowing, seeding, tree planting and pruning are progressing, and crop prospects are very good. In the southern counties farm work is nearly at a standstill, owing to the continued dry, cool weather, and grain and feed are not doing well; some farmers are plowing and seeding, but it is feared the grain already planted will be a failure if rain does not come soon. All sections would be benefited by warmer weather and heavy rain.

Free Seeds.

United States Senator Perkins has forwarded to this office from the Department of Agriculture, Washington, a quantity of vegetable seed for distribution in this valley. These seeds, which will be distributed for experimental purposes, consists of lettuce, muskmelon, parsley, tomato, parsnip, corn, beet, squash, pea, watermelon and cucumbers. Parties desiring these seeds will please call at this office.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

"She Let Concealment

Like a Worm i' the Bud Feed on Her Damask Cheek."

How aptly Shakespeare touches the dominant chord in a woman's nature. She suffers in silence; draws a curtain over her private sorrows, and endures until endurance ceases to be a virtue. This is especially the case with the modest minded women who suffer from diseases peculiar to the sex. They are miserable and unhappy, and yet, although they know that they need medical aid and assistance, they choose rather to bear the ills they know than to submit to the examination of some local physician. For this reason many a woman lets disease fasten upon her. She conceals her condition and endures a daily martyrdom of pain because her mind revolts at the thought of submission to the treatment she knows the local practitioner will insist upon.

Very many women have written grateful letters to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., because they have found in his methods an escape from the offensive questions, the obnoxious examinations, and the disagreeable local treatments insisted on by so many home physicians. These things are, as a rule, not necessary. Dr. Pierce's experience and success in treating hundreds of thousands of women, enables him at once to determine from the written statements of women the form of disease which it is necessary to treat. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is sacredly confidential and the same strict professional privacy guards the written confidences of women as is observed by Dr. Pierce and his staff in personal consultations with women at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

A WOMAN'S STATEMENT.

"I enjoy good health, thanks to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. J. J. Schnetyer, of Pontiac, Livingston Co., Ill. "Have taken six bottles of each kind. I was taken sick last February and the doctors here called it 'Grip.' I lay for four weeks in bed, then when I got up I found I had 'Displacement.' Had such aches and pains in my back and limbs could not stand any length of time. I knew that our home doctor would insist the first thing on an examination, and that I would not submit to, unless I was dangerously sick, and then it would be too late to do any good. My son had your book, Common Sense Medical Adviser, and I thought from reading it that Dr. Pierce's medicine would do me more good than all the home doctors—and so it has. If any one had told me it would do me so much good I would have said, 'Oh no, not that much good.' I can truly say that I was surprised at the benefit I received. I can do all my washing and also tend my flower garden. In fact I am on my feet most all the time. An old friend of mine said to me, 'Why, what is the matter with you? You are getting young again.' I told her I had taken six bottles of Dr. Pierce's medicines, and if she would do likewise she would feel ten years younger, too."

However wonderful it may seem, that Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription is uniformly successful in curing diseases peculiar to women, it is not so wonderful as it appears. It is not wonderful to us, that a machine made to perform a certain task accomplishes it perfectly. We do not wonder at the engine which pulls the train of cars, although we know nothing of mechanics. We know the engine was made to do this thing. We do not wonder at a musical artist like Paderewski who sits at the instrument and produces perfect harmony. We know that constant practice enables his perfect command of the keyboard. Let an inexperienced player sit down to the piano, and the same keys falsely touched jar into discord. It is so with Dr. Pierce in his experience and practice of medicine. "Favorite Prescription" only does what it was made to do. Doctor Pierce knows the whole gamut of the female organism. Where a less experienced practitioner produces a discord, his experience and skill enables the production of perfect harmony. The difference between the success of Dr. Pierce and the ordinary practitioner in the treatment and cure of womanly ailments is the difference between skill, and success on the one hand and a casual experience on the other.

GAINED TEN POUNDS.

"I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and two of his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and received great benefit," writes Mrs. Elmer D. Sheare, of Mounthope, Lancaster Co., Pa. "I do not have those sick spells as formerly. Before I took your medicine I could hardly walk at times, when I had uterine trouble. I can truly say that after taking four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and two of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I did not suffer any more. I gained ten pounds in weight. In June I commenced using the medicine and in July helped to harvest the wheat, so you may know that I did not feel very bad."

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity, dries disagreeable drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite, and induces refreshing sleep. As a tonic for weak, worn-out, run-down women it is unequaled. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription." The only motive for substitution is to enable the dealer to make the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines.

Will Ashe and a number of other prominent property owners in the vicinity of Glen Ellen are talking in favor of bonding their road district for better roads. This plan, it is claimed, will give the farmer better driveways, bridges, etc., for less money than by the present system of a yearly road tax. The same proposition is being agitated in the Sebastopol road district.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Pendergast, merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly warded off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Sold by F. Duhring. *

MAJOR SHERMAN.

Visits Sonoma—He Was our First City Clerk.

Major E. A. Sherman of Oakland was in town Wednesday and registered at the Union Hotel. The Major lived in Sonoma in the pioneer days, and in 1851 was elected its first City Clerk. At the same election the late Gen. Vallejo was chosen Mayor and John Boggs City Marshal. Major Sherman, among other things, relates that he came here from Sacramento to escape the great flood of 1851–2. Upon his arrival here he found this town also under water caused by an overflow of Nathanson's creek. When the waters subsided the Major says that trout eight and ten inches in length were left floundering in shallow pools in the Plaza and on the low streets of the town and were easily picked up by the gills.

Major Sherman's visit the other day was made in the interest of the Admiral Sloat Monument which will shortly be erected in Monterey. He is the Secretary of the Association having the matter in hand and he wants Sonoma to have an individual stone in the monument in which all the counties in the State will be represented.

THAT ELECTRIC ROAD.

The Latest Rumor that is in the Air.

A rumor has been in circulation, says the Santa Rosa Press Democrat, since the North Pacific Coast Railroad changed hands with the Central California Gas and Electric Power Company of which John Martin is President, that the company has decided to build an electric road from Sausalito to San Rafael and San Anselmo, and that the road will be extended through Petaluma to Santa Rosa and from there over to Napa county. On Tuesday it was learned the rumor was probably a well-founded one and from a reliable source it was ascertained such a project as the one mentioned is really being considered with a likelihood of its being carried out.

AN INDIGENT'S WILL.

Bequeaths $400 to the Sonoma Public School.

M. L. Charles, who died at the County Farm last week, left a will which was filed for probate Thursday. The will, which is dated June 23, 1901, bequeaths $400 to the Sonoma District School. R. A. Poppe of this place is nominated as executor and the money is to be expended for the school as its Trustees see fit.

For years and years old man Charles had been on the indigent list of the county and was in receipt of $8 and $10 every month up to within a few months ago when he became an inmate of the County Farm. It was always supposed that he was penniless and without visible means of support. He was without kith or kin and his savings of years will be devoted to a good cause without let or hindrance.

Telephone Line For the Big Electric Power Company.

Twelve linemen of the Sunset Telephone Company are making their headquarters at the Union Hotel. They arrived in town Wednesday, since which time they have been engaged in wiring the poles of the Central California Gas and Electric Power Company for an individual telephone line to be used by the big power company. The linemen are now working between this place and Napa and next week will wire the poles to Petaluma and thence to Santa Rosa. This private telephone system will be inaugurated the entire length of the Central California's power system in order to facilitate the working of the power line and to guard against accidents.

The Supervisors.

The Board of Supervisors has re-elected Frank B. Glynn as its chairman and made the following appointments: County Physician, M. M. Shearer; Superintendent of the County Farm, John Wood; Court House Engineer, F. J. Blanchard; Court House Janitor, W. T. Leggett; Court House Gardner, P. Steeland.

For Sale—Almost new house and two-acre lot, barn, etc., located in Embarcadero, for sale for $1100. This is a fine piece of property for the headquarters of a sporting club or a public resort. For further particulars inquire of H. H. Granice, Sonoma.

M. L. CHARLES' REMAINS DISINTERRED

Taken from Potter's Field and Given Decent Burial.

The remains of M. L. Charles, an old resident of this place, who died last week in the County Hospital and was buried in the Potter's field of Santa Rosa, now repose in Valley Cemetery near this place.

Previous to becoming an inmate of the County Hospital the deceased, who was eighty years of age and alone in the world, left sufficient money with Robt. Poppe to give him decent burial in the event of his death while an inmate of the institution. Through some misunderstanding the hospital officials failed to notify the old man's Sonoma friends of his death and he was hastily buried at the County Farm at the expense of the county.

As soon as this became known application was made by Mr. Poppe to County Physician Shearer for permission to disinter the remains. The application was granted, the body shipped to this place Tuesday and all that was mortal of old man Charles was consigned to a final resting place in Valley Cemetery, where repose the remains of many old residents gone before.

A Bailhache will open a barber shop in this place the first of next month. Mr. Bailhache, who is from San Francisco, is also a watch maker and bicycle repairer.

George Laux, brakesman on the California Northwestern railway, was in town Thursday looking like a young capitalist and making quite a bit among our people.

Felice Clerici will erect a handsome saloon on the west side of the Sonoma road. Work will be commenced on the building in a few days by H. N. Kellogg, the contractor and builder.

Messrs. Peter Gouailhardou and Emile Lounibos went duck shooting on the Jones ranch last Thursday. The hunters had good luck and returned home with twenty-seven birds, mostly teal and widgeon.

A large number of trees are being planted on the El Verano Villa grounds. This will add much to the appearance of this popular resort and will no doubt please the large number of guests that make it their rendezvous every summer.

Frank A. Riser, the representative of the P. I. Company in this place, went to Tudor on a duck hunt the fore part of the week. Frank had great luck and brought back with him about four dozen of the birds. In the fullness of his heart he distributed the game right and left among his friends in this place, and if the recipients of the birds did not enjoy a feast it is no fault of your correspondent.

There are about twenty-five students attending the High School now and six will graduate in June. The Trustees have lately fitted up a cozy room for the girls on the first floor of the building. They will make other improvements later on.

Mr. Weed's place on the County Board of Education has been filled by H. R. Bull of Healdsburg, who was appointed by the Board of Supervisors Tuesday.

IN CASE OF FIRE.

What to Do When a Person's Clothing Becomes Ignited.

Quick, intelligent work is imperative when a person's clothing becomes ignited. Your first move should be to get the person at length upon the floor. The easiest and safest way to accomplish this is by tripping. Then roll him over and over. This alone will go a long way toward smothering the flames, but at the same time lay hold of a rug, coat or anything thick with which the operation can be more speedily and effectually completed. A pailful of water will answer the purpose, perhaps, but do not take even ten seconds to obtain it. It is of vital importance that you make use of the nearest means. Strive to keep the flames away from the upper half of the body, for that is the most vulnerable portion of the human anatomy.

Should your own clothing catch fire it will require all of your courage and training to enable you to act rationally. The natural and almost overpowering impulse is to run. Don't; it only makes a bad matter rapidly worse. Lie down at once and roll yourself up in anything which will assist in smothering the flames. Fire has a strong upward tendency, and it will soon envelop your whole body if you remain on your feet. The danger of your inhaling the flames is also greatly increased and internal burns are pretty uniformly fatal.

So far I have used the masculine pronoun, but all of my directions apply with even more force to the women. It is a sad fact that three-fourths of those who suffer from burns belong to the fair sex. This is attributable, in a large measure, to the inflammable nature of their dress.—Good Housekeeping.

Cocoa, Cacao and Coca.

"Speaking of confusion in the use of words," said a visitor to the city from Nicaragua, "I read a story some time ago which was credited to a physician, and I was impressed with the belief that he was either misquoted or that he had got slightly mixed in his botany. He was talking about coca, cocaine, coco cola and things of that sort, and he attempted to straighten out some of the popular errors, but instead of doing so he made matters worse.

"Now, I am engaged in the business of a cacao planter near San Carlos, and I believe I ought to know something about the business. Cacao is one thing, cocoa is another and coca is still another. Cocoa is the ordinary cocoanut. Cocoa is not made from the seed of the chocolate tree, but chocolate is made from the seed of the cacao, the broma cacao. It is a rather curious fact that this word cacao is invariably spelled incorrectly in nearly all advertisements. Any good botanical dictionary will show you the difference between cocoa, the cocoanut palm; cacao, the broma cacao, and coca, the cocaine shrub. Yet these words are commonly confused and misspelled in newspapers and other advertising mediums, and the members of the medical profession, it seems, are not exempt from the same mistakes. They are separate things, with separate properties, and have separate uses."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Sense of Smell.

The eye is used only for seeing and the ear for hearing, but the nose is one of the organs that serve a double purpose. It is not only the seat of the sense of smell, but was intended to be the principal organ through which man should breathe. Its circuitous passages, warm and moist, protect the lungs by taking the chill from the inspired air and arresting irritating dust.

The whole nose is not concerned in the act of smelling. The olfactory nerves, which alone take cognizance of odors, are situated in the upper third of the nasal chambers, out of the line of ordinary inhalation. For this reason we do not usually notice odors unless they are somewhat strong, but when we whiff—draw the air into the upper part of the nostrils and hold it there for a few moments—we become aware of the faintest scent.

Changed Her Mind.

The house was "handy to the street car line" and in good repair. There was the proper number of closets and the rental was reasonable, but before coming to terms the house hunting matron said to the agent:

"It is only fair for me to tell you that we have five boys."

"That won't make any difference, ma'am," he said, with a smile. "You will find big families of boys on both sides of you."

"Oh, then I don't want the house at all!" she exclaimed. "I want to find a neighborhood where there won't be any boys but mine!"

At last accounts she was still hunting.

Then the Lady Blushed.

It is a mistake to presume upon the misfortunes of others, as the following shows: A gentleman who had been afflicted with deafness returned home from a visit to London, and soon after went to call upon a lady of his acquaintance.

He found her at home, and with her a cousin of hers, who was also paying her a visit. The hostess received him with politeness and introduced him to her cousin, but to her introduction she added in a perfectly audible tone, "He's a good man enough, but he's terribly stupid and as deaf as a post."

The gentleman colored.

"I may be stupid," he said, "but I am no longer as deaf as a post, for I have been cured during my absence and can hear as well as anybody."—London Fun.

Women Live Longer Than Men.

In the tropics it is a recognized fact that the duration of life among women is much longer than among men, and the causes which contribute to this end seem to hold good for all climates. A well known medical expert on the subject of colonial life maintains that exposure to fatigue, chills, irregular meals and the frequent taking of alcohol account for men dying quicker in the tropics than women, who avoid all these causes. And unquestionably the same reasons have contributed to female longevity in this country, but the balance of life will be more evenly adjusted in another generation or two, since women are more and more entering into competition with men every day.

REMARKABLE CURE OF CROUP

A Little Boy's Life Saved.

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine my boy would not be on earth to-day.—Joel Demont, Inwood, Iowa. ## POLITICAL BANNERS.

Progress From the Old Time Canvas Sail to the Modern Net.

"Fifty years or thereabouts ago," said a veteran sign painter, "they made all the political banners swung across streets of canvas. The pictures and the names and all that were painted on them or painted on cloth and sewed on them.

"Such banners were like great sails, and of course they caught the wind and bellied out with a tremendous pull. Later this pull came to be reduced somewhat by cutting sizable round holes in the canvas to let the wind through.

"It was not an unusual thing in those days to attach weights to the banners to hold them down in a high wind. Sometimes the weights broke loose and did serious damage.

"I remember one case in which a citizen sued a New England city for damages for injuries suffered by such a weight that got loose from a banner and fell. Later bags of shot were substituted for iron weights as likely to do less damage if they got away.

"Next to canvas banners with holes in them to let the wind through and to deliver the great strain came the net banners of today. And in case of a heavy blow, in which even a network banner might be damaged, the banner as now rigged can be brailed in against one of the supporting poles—in effect, furled—to be hauled out into place again in favorable weather.

"Everything has been improved, of course, in the last fifty years, but I don't know of anything that has undergone a greater improvement than the political banner."—New York Sun.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.
F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.
Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain
